

Stratos HSSD[®] 2

HIGH SENSITIVITY SMOKE DETECTOR

The best just got better!

- More sensitive
- Smaller and lighter
- Concealed pipes & cables
- More cost effective
- Simpler to use
- More informative

AirSense takes its proven track record from one millennium to the next with the launch of the all-new Stratos-HSSD[®] High Sensitivity Smoke Detection system.

Advances in technology and manufacturing techniques have permitted unequalled performance, revolutionary features and the most cost-effective high sensitivity system yet.

Stratos-HSSD[®] is now capable of even more refined response by providing information on smoke density AND particle size.
